NIG FIRST – PRODUCT TRAINING DAYS

WHO IS IT AIMED AT?

Each product training day consists of a full days face to face training course reviewing the main covers available together with typical exclusions and underwriting features. It is an interactive workshop designed for those new to, or who have 1 or 2 years experience of the specific product (Commercial Combined, Property Owners, Motor Fleet or Motor Trade).

Though aimed primarily at new starters or those early within their commercial broking careers, it is also appropriate for those looking to refresh their knowledge/understanding.

Places are limited to two per Brokerage.
